

There have been important changes to Public Procurement laws recently.

These affect most public procurement processes. Failure to understand and adhere to the new rules could be extremely costly.

Quigg Golden invites you to a FREE 2 hour seminar which will consider the key changes, and how they will affect Public Bodies in procuring work. Topics that will be covered include:

- The Public Contracts Regulations 2009:
 - Compulsory de-briefing for unsuccessful tenders
 - Changes to the standstill period
 - Automatic suspension of contract award when a challenge is raised, however frivolous
 - New legal remedies and sanctions
- Other legal changes
 - Extensions to the time that must be allowed for challenges
 - Changing sub-contractors can require the tender process to be restarted
 - Important changes to procurement of Part B services

There will also be time for attendees to ask questions on the changes to procurement laws, or any procurement related issues.

Places are limited and allocated on first come first served basis. Refreshments will be provided.

The Seminar will take place on Wednesday 28 April 2010 at 3:00pm

At Gatwick Worth Hotel
Turners Hill Road, Worth
Crawley
West Sussex, RH10 4ST

Free Procurement Telephone Support

Anyone who attends the seminar, or registers their interest in future seminars will be able to download free information sheets (available after the seminar) and will be entitled to receive free telephone support on any procurement issue (fair usage policy applies).
